

TREETOPS LODGE & ESTATE

Few places in the world truly embody the spirit of adventure more than the fabulous, award-winning Treetops Lodge and Estate. Set in more than 2,500 acres of 800 year old native forestry and valleys in New Zealand's famed thermal region of Rotorua. Treetops is a carefully managed game and wildlife habitat for fly fishermen, sporting enthusiasts and their pampered guests.

Treetops Lodge and Estate comprises four suites and eight private ultra-luxurious villas which are located in the extensive grounds. Each of the suites has its own unique character, individual style, design and exquisite furnishings. The villas, positioned a stroll from the Lodge, offer privacy and seclusion framed by native virgin forest with views over lakes and wildlife.

Treetops Lodge and Estate offers seven streams, on-site fishing, four lakes, over 70 kilometres of hiking trails, mountain bike riding, horse riding and the Treetops Maori Indigenous Food Trail.
