

BAY OF MANY COVES RESORT

There is a place in the heart of the Marlborough Sounds, New Zealand's famous wine growing region, where lush green hills kiss azure blue waters, where a uniquely tranquil and restful sanctuary awaits. Bay of Many Coves Resort is a luxurious five star retreat offering spacious hillside apartments, with an uninterrupted vista of coastline and native bush-clad hills. Relax around the all-season fresh water pool, take in the view from the cedar hot tub or indulge in a massage treatment. The restaurant's irresistible cuisine reflects the region's finest harvest from succulent seafood to delicious olives and fruits, and naturally, the very best of hand selected wines. This exclusive picture postcard retreat presents an extraordinary playground for sailing, fishing, walking and kayaking in an unspoilt natural environment that is absolutely world class.
