

MONTANA BRANCOTT WINERY

Montana Brancott Winery - Wine tourism at its best, Montana's Brancott Winery in Marlborough is a must-see for tourists. It features an elegant restaurant, retail store, tasting rooms and wine education facility. Tours of the Brancott Winery give visitors an insight into the world of wine making and the opportunity to see the revolutionary grape tipper tanks - the first of their kind in the world. Another visitors' favourite is the imposing cuve room, where some of Montana's premium red wines are fermented in oak. With its soaring eight metre cathedral ceiling, kwila hardwood fittings and multi-branched copper chandelier, the Cellar Door offers an attractive retail environment for winery visitors. For visitors with time on their side discover the magic of winemaking with an all-inclusive Brancott Wine Odyssey experience. Soak up the atmosphere of a working vineyard and winery, learn about the amazing combination of science and art behind creating world class wine and top it off with a sumptuous three-course luncheon.
